Hong Kong Aircraft Engineering Co. Ltd.

Hong Kong Aircraft Engineering Company Limited (香港飛機工程公司), better known as HAECO (港機工程). Established in Hong Kong in 1950 and based at the Hong Kong International Airport (HKIA), HAECO is one of the world's leading independent aircraft engineering and maintenance groups. It is one of the largest Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul (MRO) service providers in terms of capacity.

HAECO is home to the headquarters of the HAECO Group, which currently comprises 19 operating subsidiaries and affiliates, employing over 17,000 staff in Hong Kong, Mainland

China, Singapore and the United States. In 2012, HAECO was awarded the “Leading Independent Organization” by Aviation Week and voted as the “Best Airframe MRO Provider – Asia” at the Aircraft Technology Engineering & Maintenance Awards. Together, they ensure the safety, quality, reliability of aircraft fleets through services that include airframe and line maintenance, cabin reconfiguration, inventory technical management and more.

HAECO is an integral part of the HKIA, offering round-the-clock support to more than 100 airline customers and handling over 110,000 flight movements each year. Drawing on six decades of aircraft engineering expertise, HAECO delivers an unparalleled range of airframe and line maintenance solutions, enhanced by strong in-house component services and comprehensive back shop support, as well as long-standing relationships with OEMs. It is also a world-class leader for tailor-made cabin reconfiguration, offering complete cabin modification and maintenance services.
